

FEBRUARY 2016

Broome County admissions to crisis, inpatient, outpatient, & residential treatment facilities by primary substance type:

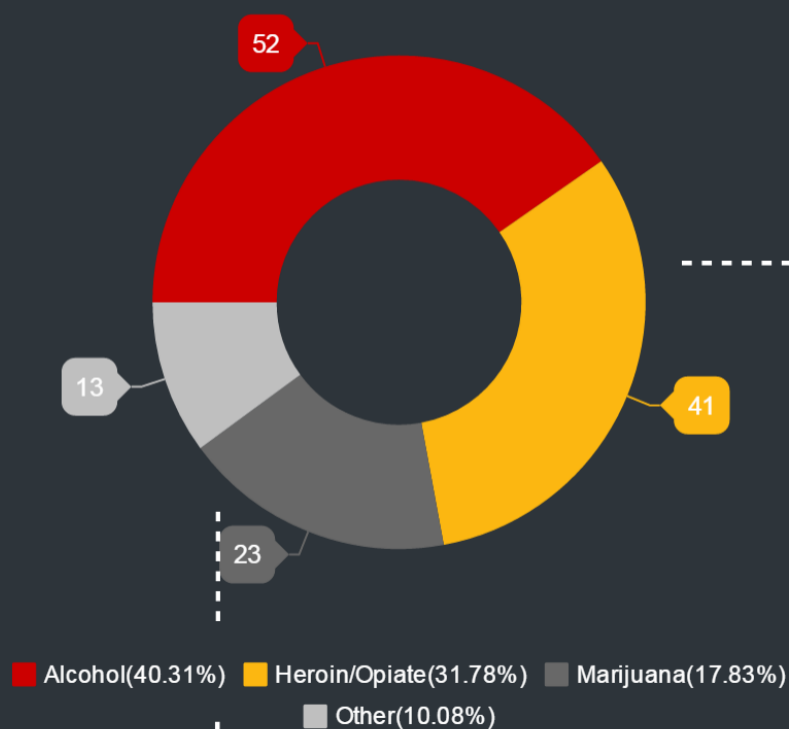

Crisis Admissions (52)

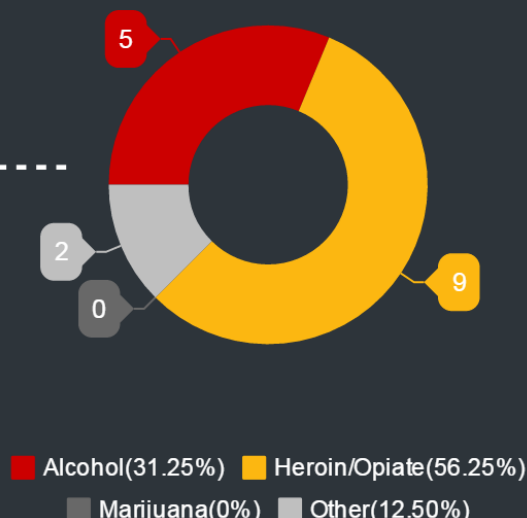

Inpatient Admissions (29)

Outpatient Admissions (129)

Residential Admissions (16)

226 total admissions to Broome County treatment programs in February 2016

84 (37%) of clients identified alcohol as their primary substance upon admission

86 (38%) identified heroin/opiates as their primary substance upon admission

26 (12%) of clients identified marijuana as their primary substance upon admission

SOURCES: NYS OASAS LGU/County Admission Item Statistics Report - February 2016

This infographic was brought to you by: Broome Opioid Abuse Council